Scripture Reflection

Humanity must all face the chill of death's certainty. It is more comfortable not to acknowledge it, but we know that everything we love and rely on will pass away. Even we ourselves will return to the dust. This admission is like an icy rain that clouds our vision and numbs our hands. It can obscure every joy and steal the warmth from every moment of love.

This fear anchors and feeds our worst decisions. Fear of lost joy makes us grasp at places or things that might make us happy. Fear of losing a loved one upends otherwise happy relationships. From these fears, the deadly sins unfold: anger, pride, envy, greed, gluttony and lust; sloth comes when we despair over the inevitable dominion death has over us. These are truly death's offspring, rising up from our deepest fears and impelling us to our most destructive behaviors.

Christ's resurrection shows us that we no longer have to live this way. In this Easter Gospel, John is oddly specific about the condition of the burial cloths; for him, they are evidence that death has been defeated. Someone who moved or stole the body would have kept it wrapped up. Realizing this, the two apostles took the discarded winding-sheet and veil as symbols of the resurrection: the man who bore them needed them no longer. They saw and believed, even though they did not understand how it could have possibly been true. The Gospel reading from Matthew told us how the two Marys left the tomb fearful yet overjoyed. Death might cast its shadow, but the resurrection fills life with light. Jesus says again and again in each resurrection account, "Peace! Do not be afraid!" Death is defeated!

This is the light of Easter. This is the light shared with the newly baptized during the Easter Vigil, and with all of us as we renew our baptismal vows, participating in Jesus' death and resurrection. His death liberated us from sin; his resurrection shows new life, made visible when death's shadow is destroyed, along with the fear of loss and defeat it brings. We lose nothing when we love our enemies, bless our persecutors and forgive our transgressors. The Easter gift is peace. Peace to all this Easter Day!

Cathedral Basket Bingo

This annual event is one of our major fund-raisers at the Cathedral. Monies go towards our educational and faith formation programs, supporting Catholic education, religious education sacramental formation, vacation bible school, and adult enrichment opportunities.

Can you help with items to be placed in the baskets for our spring Basket Bingo? Quality gifts for babies, picnics, kitchens, home decor, sports related items, recreational items, car care; really, any theme would be fine. A gift card to a local store would be appreciated along with any monetary donations. These can be dropped off at the Parish Office. Your stewardship is greatly appreciated. If you would like items picked up, call Roberta Burns (515-1614) or Lorraine Beck (942-7774). All items need to be collected by April 15. We are also accepting cartons of soda and bottles of water.

Also, we ask parishioners to please purchase a ticket to play Bingo on this day. Cathedral Parish's Basket Bingo has become known for its singular prizes; all of them donated; some are more expensive (ex., furniture, recliner); all possess distinctive quality. The profit for the day comes with those who play bingo. This spring fund-raiser replaces our summer festival which was for three days; Basket Bingo is a five hour commitment. Please purchase a ticket and invite a friend to join us on Sunday, May 7, 2017, in Father Kelley Hall. Ticket prices are $25 for an Entry Ticket that includes: 15 games of Basket Bingo, food and beverages. You may also upgrade with an additional $30 Value Pack that includes: 108 Door Prize tickets, 6 Walk-Around Prize tickets, 1 dobber and 5 Special Games. In addition to all the games, there will be plenty of delicious food. We need parishioners to support this event by coming to play bingo. We need a full hall of bingo players to make this a successful fundraiser for the Cathedral Parish. Tickets are now being sold at the Cathedral Square door after all weekend Masses and at the Cathedral Parish Office during regular business hours Monday through Friday. Thank you.

Congratulations to Our Newest Members

At the Easter Vigil the Sacraments of Initiation were celebrated with the following: Courtney Becker, Jason Burkle, Madison Runk, Angela Blough, Lindsey Bonsell, Mickey Fields, Kelsey Henry, Brandon Leeper, Carlee McCaulley, and Heather Ritchey. As full members of the Church, these sisters and brothers are now welcome to come to the holy table to receive the Body and Blood of Christ, the source and summit of Catholic life.

Easter Candle 2017

Thank you to Jim Seiler who melted the wax and created our magnificent Easter Candle. Thank you to Stephanie Kilcoyne who created the beautiful needlepoint art adorning the candle.

Easter Water

Parishioners are invited to take Easter Water from the baptismal font. Bottles have been provided at the font. We would ask one bottle per family. Use this water throughout the liturgical year at home. Baptismal water is a central symbol for believers of the Catholic family. We walk through the waters of Baptism to discipleship in Christ. The forty days of Lent have prepared us to renew our baptismal identity at Easter Mass today.

Confirmations Throughout Easter Season

There are four Confirmations scheduled at the Cathedral throughout this Easter Season. The first of these celebrations is scheduled this week during the Octave of Easter. On Wednesday, April 19, members of these Altoona Parishes: Saint Mary, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Sacred Heart, Our Lady of Lourdes, Saint Rose of Lima, and Saint John the Evangelist along with students from Saint Joseph, Bellwood, will be confirmed by Bishop Mark Bartchak at 7:00 PM.

Rest In Peace - Please remember in prayer Regina Osmolinski who died and was buried from the Cathedral this past week. May she rest in the peace of the risen Christ.

Welcome

To those visiting here this Easter Day and to those who may be returning home to the Catholic family this day, welcome! The Church invites all to be at home with us. If you need to talk to a priest; go to Confession; have your marriage blessed; or just need to be listened to; call the Parish Office at 944-4603. The crucified and risen Lord extends hospitality and welcome to all.

Concerts Under The Dome

Composer Timothy Milbinger will present premieres of five works on Friday night, April 28th at 7:30 PM here in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. A member of the Penn State Altoona music faculty since 2009, Mr. Melbinger has written diverse music for a variety of instruments for this program that will incorporate the Cathedral space within his compositions. The Juniata College Wind Symphony and the Keyboard Percussion Ensemble will perform two works, and Penn State Altoona's Ivyside Pride Choir will sing. Mark your calendar now! You will not want to miss this one!

Liturgical Reflection ...

Today Christians remember the glorious resurrection of our Savior. Death could not keep the Lord in the tomb. Christ has conquered death and new life is ours. On Easter Sunday we stand and renew our baptismal promises. We reject evil and sin, and profess our faith in God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are claimed for Jesus Christ who died and rose. For fifty days we will sing our alleluias and praise God for the gift of resurrection. Sorrow leads to joy, despair fades into hope, and apathy is overcome by divine love. Happy Easter!

Progress on Capital Campaign Project

Work is proceeding on our project with the purchased building to house parish offices, religious education facilities, and an activity center. Partitions are placed on the second floor (religious education classes) and have begun to be placed on the top floor (parish offices). Exterior access to the second floor (from Fourteenth Street) is underway. Plumbing, electrical, and heating/air-conditioning work continues. Exterior work on the building will begin within the next weeks.

The lower parking lot (Thirteenth Street and Cathedral Square) work will begin in May. Thirty-four additional spaces will be added for Cathedral parking availability. Lighting and paving will be addressed for the upper parking lot at the same time.

Thank you to all who have pledged and committed to this capital project here in the Cathedral Parish. This is a historic time in our 165 years of life in center city Altoona. Thank you for your regular payments toward your pledges. We are seeing this project unfold and move towards completion. God bless you for your generous and prayerful response.

Please Remember Our Military In Prayer

Please keep all of our Cathedral men and women in the armed services in your Easter prayer.

EASTER BLESSINGS 2017

*O God, who on this day,
 through your only Begotten Son,
 have conquered death
 and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we keep the solemnity of the Lord's resurrection
 may, through the renewal brought by your spirit, rise up in the light of new life.*
